Lawsuit Reform Alliance
of New York

Justice. Fairness. Common Sense.

The Lawsuit Reform Alliance of New York is a nonpartisan non-profit coalition of hardworking New York business leaders, professionals, taxpayers, and citizens committed to changing our burdensome and expensive legal system to help create more jobs and energize the state's economy.

What We Do:

As the only exclusively legal reform- focused advocacy group in New York, LRANY is leading the fight for common sense lawsuit reform.

LRANY is made up of an engaged and active grassroots base of thousands of members and supporters, as well as industry leaders, local and national businesses, legal professionals, healthcare providers, and nonprofit advocacy organizations.

Our diverse membership makes LRANY a unique and important voice in the policy-making process. LRANY's aggressive lobbying efforts harness the voice of our members to drive real, demonstrable results here in New York.

Member Benefits

LRANY Members enjoy a host of benefits:

ACCESS: LRANY's Member community includes leaders from a wide range of professions and disciplines. Our signature events provide valuable opportunities for networking and collaboration.

AWARENESS: LRANY's Members are the first to know when important tort issues develop. From fast moving legislation and precedent-setting cases and decisions, to key political developments, LRANY's front- line team keeps members in the know.

EDUCATION: LRANY is the leading source for information on lawsuit reform in New York. Our events provide expert analysis and commentary on today's most important tort issues. Our wealth of position papers and issue primers arms our members with the knowledge they need.

EMPOWERMENT: LRANY places a high value on member engagement and empowerment. Members are invited to participate in issue-specific subcommittees and working groups, and provide strategic input on important policy issues.
